In recommending the subject to the consideration of our fello v-citizens, we would remark that our views of the Past and the Present are taken by the light of experience, which, to the rational man of observation, is anquestionably clear, persuasive and exciting. It is a National subject; it is for the interest and honor of every citizen; and all are asked to weigh it calmly, and give it their support understandingly.

JOHN LOVE, President.

FRANCIS KENNEDY, Secretary.

To the Honorable the Senate and House of Representatatives of the United States, in Congress assembled:

May it please your Honorabie Body,-We, the undersigned, citizens of the United States, suffering greatly from a scarcity of employment and con-sequent unequitable prices and wages for what we get to do, and thus patting it out of our power, while these cir-cumstances continue, to provide comfortably for ourselves and families; and naving in years past frequently suffered a watch from these evils, which we believe have been and are now general; and being of opinion that they should not exist, and that it is in our power as a people to remove them; we respectfully submit for your consideration our views as to the primary cause of the before mentioned evil, and the mander of its operation. They are as fol-

Chiefly, by the importation of foreign goods. That the people of these States have been outwitted by foreigners in the purchase of their manufactures; that we have in fact paid more for them than if we had made them our-selves; that manufacturers and mechanics living in foreign countries cannot reciprocate with us, the laws of their respective Governments not permitting them; that | Daniel Fisher, Cuptain of the watch, was sentenced to the foreign trade under these circumstances is a national City Prison 20 days. loss; that it has created on an average a balance against this country of many millions a year; that the quantity of European goods purchased for one million of dollars would employ ave thousand four hundred and seventy men all the year round to manufacture them, as appears from the following statement:

Cost of mate ial used in manufacture $50,003 Five thousand four hundred and fifty-five me-75,000

Postages, etc. 24,020 Therefore, for every milition of a balance there is against this country, ave thousand four hundred and sevemy men are deprived of employment, and the money hat ought to have passed through their bands in the pockets of the landlord, the merchant and the farmer, has all gone to Europe.

That this fully accounts for the scarcity of work and scarcity of money in this country. That, by excluding the manufactures of other countries, we secure the following benefits:

First, That, instead of the manufactured goods, we shall have the manufacturers and the mechanics, bringing along with them their skill in manufactures besides, their gold and silver; they will use the produce of our farms; they will act interchangeably with us; and in time of war they will strengthen our arm of defence; in short. that they will be every inch Americans. Second. Abundance of freight for our canals and railroads. Third. An increasing sale of the Public Lands Fourth. A home market for every thing, whether useful

Fifth. Constant employment to all, and labor receive its just reward, so that the young may marry together with safety, and the married provide comfertably for themselves and families without cetting into dekt. Sixth. A just apportionment of the several interests

Therefore, we petition your Honorable Body by an act so to increase the duties upon imported goods as speedily to exclude the manufacture, of other countries, according to their wisdom. I Humanity .- DEAR SIR-A few months are nothing but a miracle could seem to reach my case, and if I were to tell the truth I should not expect to be believed. but I will tell as much as I think the public will possibly swallow. I know, sir, that the prejudices of the public against specifics are so strong I cannot reasonably expect if you should spread my case before them, that many of them will even read it, much less make an experiment, but you have to say a candid hearing. But, hit or miss, here you have it. Last June I was taken with a severe fit of pleurisy. of Eight was appointed to draft resolutions expressive of | which left me with a constant cough and a very free and offensive expectoration, so much prostrated as to be confined to the house, appetite poor, taste nearly lost, very severe night sweats, when lying on my right side I would strangle pearly to suffocation, a great share of the time I was under the necessity to rest and sleep sitting up, on account of pair and sufficients. I had regular becties every day, and was reduced in strength and emaciated much, attended with extreme weakness, my feet and hands were much swollen. I raised at least a pint of matter every made to pour its treasures of coal, iron and lumber, with sickening, I was very chilly and thirsty in the afternoon of each day. Dr. Eddy, of Staten Island, attended me. and succeeded in reducing the plaurisy, but the above fearful symptoms setticz in, he said I had the consump-tion and was beyond cure. I inquired of him whether he could render me any permanent help, and he told me he could not. I had heart of the case of Rev. Redfield and Williams, of New York, and after svailing myself of a knowledge of the effects of your Carminantia upon them, and a description of the cases which so clearly set forth my own I determined to try one bottle. After using half of the first bottle, I found I was gaining a little strength. and my appetite began to increase, by the time I had used the whole bottle my night sweats and fever had left me entirely; after I had used 2; bottles I threw off much blood, mucus and pus; there wust have been a number of t was impossible I could live after so much loss of blood Dr. E. was immediately called, and thought I must now die, but from this I began to mend ravidiv, and I now feel quite

> ing it, and I do sincerely believe it will complete a perfect cure from what it has already done.
